

IBRA continues to support our international community of readers and reach out to new readers with God's Word globally

We deeply appreciate your ongoing support and prayers

Please would you keep this card and hold us and our work in your prayers throughout the year?

These first seven verses are from Psalm 78:1-7 and capture our continuing vision for IBRA and hope for those we serve:

- 1 My people, hear my teaching;
listen to the words of my mouth.
- 2 I will open my mouth with a parable;
I will utter hidden things, things from of old
- 3 things we have heard and known,
things our ancestors have told us.
- 4 We will not hide them from their descendants;
we will tell the next generation
the praiseworthy deeds of the Lord,
his power, and the wonders he has done.
- 5 He decreed statutes for Jacob
and established the law in Israel,
which he commanded our ancestors
to teach their children,
- 6 so the next generation would know them,
even the children yet to be born,
and they in turn would tell their children.
- 7 Then they would put their trust in God
and would not forget his deeds
but would keep his commands.

Our prayer points for the next 12 months.
Would you please join with us:

- Pray for our editor David Painting, the Readings Group, our global writers, and the UK team and publishers as they faithfully continue our mission.
- Pray for our 15 international IBRA partners, supporting readers in 32 countries, some who live in places where openly following Jesus is dangerous.
- Pray for God's provision of funding for our new IBRA apps, which will allow thousands to access God's Word discreetly on their mobile devices in their own languages.
- Pray for renewed connections with Christian communities, as we work with SPCK to reach our historic partners in continents across the world by 2026.

Thank You
